The No.1 Choice for Folding Campers

www.foldingcampers.net

This is the life...

...Camping with a difference.

Dad finally convinced mum that we should buy one of the new Conway folding campers just like the one Mr & Mrs Brown across the road have.

It's really great. For someone who still can't programme the video recorder, I think Dad impressed himself just how simple and quick it is to erect. There's lots of room for all of us and the train set that Craig insisted on bringing! I've even got my own bedroom complete with a real bed.

Mum cooked a brilliant meal last night. The kitchen is really well equipped. We had fish that Dad says he caught in the river!!! and new potatoes from the farm at the top of the lane.

It looks like the French lessons are not such a waste of time after all, Dad says that Conway trailers are so easy to tow, that next summer we're off to France.

Au Revoir, Mon Ami!
