Compact 5 berth with versatility.

For the ultimate in home comforts, the Designer camper promises luxury living on the go.

Spring, summer or autumn, if you're free to travel as often as you like, you'll want to travel in style. And what better way to discover the many beauties of the British Isles and beyond than with this luxurious Designer camper?

Perfect for the freedom years, the Riva Designer is amazingly spacious and superbly well-designed with a central pedestal table, comfortably situated between two single settees and can sleep up to five adults.

You may wish to enjoy the liberty of the Designer, just the two of you together. But if you're taking the family along for fun, there's plenty more space in addition to the main double bed. The settee easily converts into a second double bed and a further single bed can be created in the table area.

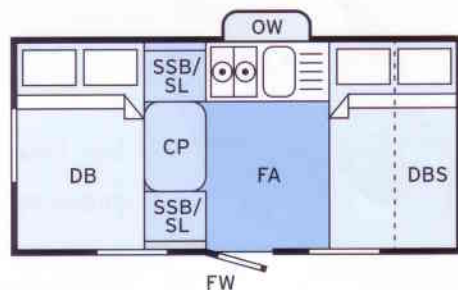

With the Designer, you're travelling first class all the way.
